What Is the Artist Enclave, and Why Is It So Unique?

In 2014, the St. Petersburg City Council unanimously approved an Artist Enclave Overlay District in the Historic Kenwood Neighborhood. The special distinction allows a limited amount of commercial activity to take place. Artists can create artwork, teach students, and sell their creations from their homes. These special accommodations encourage a thriving arts community. Only two of these special artists' overlays exist in St. Petersburg.

What Are Finalts?

The Finalts of Historic Kenwood are a Public Arts Initiative. They are original pieces of art, by Kenwood artists, adorning street corner poles throughout Historic Kenwood. So far, there are 33 finalts, commissioned in two phases, in 2019 and 2021 - with many more to come...

2022 Artist Studio Tour

Artists at Work in the Artist Enclave of Historic Kenwood

Enjoy two days exploring the art- and culture-filled neighborhood of Historic Kenwood and experience the work of 24 artists, from emerging artists to internationally recognized professionals, at 17 different stops.

The self-guided tour includes creations by ceramicists, sculptors, jewelers, photographers, mixed multi-media artists, fine art painters and performance artists. The theme "Artists at Work" allows collectors and visitors to engage with artists, and enjoy live demos throughout the two-day tour. Learn about the creative process and what steps an artist takes to bring their ideas from concept to completion.

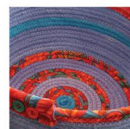

An added feature of this year's tour, The Kenwood Gables B&B hosts a 2-day exhibition of artwork by Enclave members.

Treat yourself to a new piece for your collection or pick up gifts for friends and family!

Come experience the Historic Kenwood neighborhood "Where Art Lives"!
